Life-saving socket

When the house is on fire and full of heavy smoke, the best way to evacuate is to crawl along the corner. Sometimes, it's difficult for people to find the way out when they are hurt.

So saving socket is designed to solve this problem.

Especially in a fire emergency, when the fire occurs, the socket will be flipped over and the LED on the top will indicate the direction for evacuating.